

Payments

PROXYPAGE may provide users with free and paid services. Payments can be made on a one-time or regular basis depending on tariffs, selected by the user.

You may cancel your membership at anytime, and cancellations will be effective immediately. You will lose any remaining downloads or access. We do not provide refunds or credits for any partial membership period.

PROXYPAGE will begin billing your payment method for regular subscription fees corresponding to your subscription plan plus any applicable tax. To view the specific details of your subscription plan, log on at <https://proxypage.io> and click "Payment" once you are logged on to the PROXYPAGE website. We will continue to bill your payment method on a regular basis for your membership plan until you cancel. You may cancel your membership at anytime. We offer a number of subscription plans. Our plans may include limits on the number of user requests plus access to additional resources. We reserve the right to modify, terminate or otherwise amend our offered plans or to decrease the requests per month to which you are entitled under a particular plan. Unless otherwise stated differently, your "Billing Cycle" refers respectively to subscription that you chose upon registration.

By starting your PROXYPAGE membership, you are expressly agreeing that we are authorized to charge you a membership fee for your Billing Cycle, any applicable tax and any other charges you may incur in connection with your use of PROXYPAGE services to the payment method you provided during registration (or to a different payment method if you change your account information). As used in these Terms of Use, "billing" shall indicate either a charge or debit, as applicable, against your payment method, where applicable.

The membership fee will be billed at the beginning of your membership and on each renewal thereafter unless and until you cancel your membership if regular subscription was chosen. For example, if you became a paying member on January 31st and you chose monthly payment, your payment method would next be billed on February 28th. We may also periodically authorize your card in anticipation of membership.

All fees and charges are nonrefundable and there are no refunds or credits for partially used periods. We may change the fees and charges in effect, or add new fees and charges from time to time, but we will give you advance notice of these changes by email or prominently at the PROXYPAGE website. If your Payment Method reaches its expiration date, your continued use of the service beyond that date constitutes your authorization for us to continue billing that Payment Method and you remain responsible for any uncollected amounts. Your PROXYPAGE membership will continue in effect unless and until you cancel your membership or we terminate it. You must cancel your membership at least one day before it renews in order to avoid billing of the next monthly, biannual or annual membership fees to your Payment Method. We will bill the next monthly, biannual or annual membership fee plus any applicable tax to the Payment Method you provide to us during registration (or to a different Payment Method if you change your account information).

Trial period offers. You may have received a limited time of free service or some other trial period offer. Unless we notify you otherwise, if you are participating in any trial period offer, you must cancel the service by the end of the trial period to avoid incurring charges. If you do not cancel your service, and we have informed you that the service will automatically be converted into a paid subscription at the end of the trial period, then you authorize us to charge your payment method for the service.
